Re: U.S. v. Mark Angarola
24 Cr. 023 (DEH)

SO ORDERED.

Dale E. Ho

U.S. District Judge

Dated: February 22, 2024

New York, New York

Dear Judge Ho:

I write with no objection by the government, to respectfully request an additional two weeks to post the property of his step mother as security for Mr. Angarola's release. The property is in another state, and we have confronted numerous barriers to posting the property as security. This court has on two previous occasions allowed one-week extensions of the time to perfect the security. We believe this request should be sufficient to finally secure the bond with this property.

We respectfully request that Mr. Angarola have until March 6, 2024 to post the property as security for his bond.

The Government does not object to this request.

If the court has any questions, I may be reached at (212) 966-3970

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Donald duBoulay, Esq.
